

CREAM OF THE EXCHANGES.

How the Russell Exploring Party Climbed Mount St. Elias.

Desirable Immigration and the Reverse—An Opium Ring—Ovide Musin.

The usual amount of work was done on the Skyline, the No. One, the Tenderfoot, and the Delia, during the week, but there is no news of importance to chronicle. A piece of ore weighing over three pounds was brought down from the Neosho, and exhibited as the richest specimen extracted from any mine in the lake country. It is almost pure silver.

Ovide Musin, the celebrated violinist, who appears in this city at the end of the year, was married in New York, on Thursday, to Miss Annie Louise Tanner. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride, and was performed by Rev. T. B. McLeod, of Brooklyn, a life-long friend of the bride. Mrs. Musin's father is the Hon. A. P. Hodges, of Detroit.

A revival of the famous Tichburne case is threatened. It is alleged that the veritable Arthur Orton has turned up in the lunatic asylum at Paramatta, Australia. Warder Carroll, of Ballarat, who served in the Carbineers in which Sir Roger Tichburne was an officer, and who was an important witness in the original trial at Westminster, has been sent to interview the alleged Orton, and it is possible there may be some interesting developments soon.

The Episcopal bishop of Delaware took a walk of 375 miles, roughly clad and with no insignia of his business about him. Some people took him for the advance agent of a circus, others for a moonshine detective, others thought him a crook, and some drove him from their premises with dogs. The bishop thinks he has found several things out, chief among them is that a man isn't necessarily bad if he doesn't wear good clothes.

The farmers of Western Kansas have under advisement an offer of Melbourne, the rain-maker, to reduce regular showers over the surface of forty counties for the sum of 10 cents per acre, no rain, no pay. The last clause is the one that will trouble Melbourne the most, as it leaves him no place to work in his excuse machine when the rain machine fails to respond.

Construction work has been commenced on the Pilot Bay smelter. Two 16x32 buildings are already up. A boarding-house, 26x75, will be erected next, then an office and assay office. About 1,000 feet of cribbing will be required for the outer or lake wharf and 300 feet for the inner or bay wharf. A brick machine of 12,000 a day capacity has been ordered from San Francisco, and is expected by the next boat down the river; a repress for pressed brick has also been ordered. A bed of clay of clay of extra fine quality has been discovered at the bay and but a short distance from the smelter site. Dr. Aendryx, the manager, is on the ground, and says from 25 to 30 men will be employed from now until spring.

IMMIGRATION RETURNS.

The Canadian immigration returns for the half year ended June 30th, show a total arrival of immigrants by rail and water routes of 14,244 as against 13,311 for the same period last year. Of these, 1,721 settled in Quebec, 3,222 in Ontario, 2,260 in Manitoba, 607 in the North-west Territories, 551 in British Columbia, and 5,537 passed through to the United States. Of the total 4,254 departed at Montreal, where they were an accused of themselves, whence they came, whether they were going, and what they brought with them. In respect to this latter the report was very satisfactory, showing that the quality of the new comers this season is exceptionally good. They brought with them into the country in all $166,400, or an average of about $200 per family of five. Certainly this is not a very large amount to begin life with in a new country. And yet if properly husbanded and judiciously invested it will ease the start considerably. It does at any rate place its possessor at a long remove from the pauper immigrant who is giving our neighbors so much anxiety and trouble. Indeed there is at the present moment a commission of Americans in England, sent over to investigate and discover, if possible, some means of checking at its source the tide of undesirable immigrants that is sweeping in upon their shores. They contend that there is no use in trying to send back the immigrants once they have come, and that the only effectual method is some system that will shut off bad immigration at the sources abroad. There can be no doubt but Canadians would be glad to see an increased inflow of settlers to people the waste places of our great north-west territories, but no one who appreciates the situation correctly will grieve that the inflow is not greater, if a larger number meant a deterioration in the quality of the new comers. Better a thousandfold that our prairies should lie unbroken than that we should be called upon to care for and dispose of the pauper and criminal classes which the countries of Europe are sloughing off. Such immigration is worse than no immigration. —Vernon News.

OPIMUM SMUGGLING.

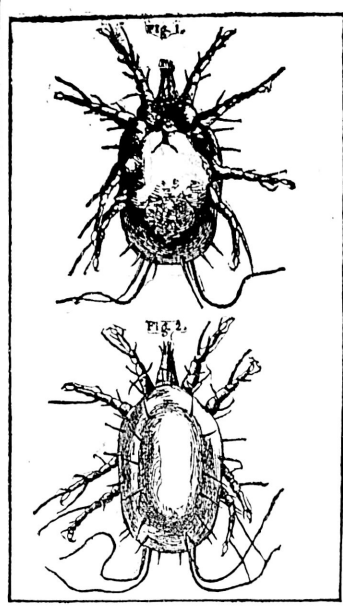

The Chicago Times has a special dispatch from Washington, D. C., which says that startling disclosures are promised in regard to the smuggling of opium into the United States from British Columbia. It declares that after six months' investigation officers of the secret service have made a ponderous report to the Treasury Department, showing the existence of an opium smuggling ring, which includes many prominent men and United States Government officials, and that in extent it has not been equalled since the famous whiskey ring of 1876. At least two United States senators and five congressmen are implicated.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

The question has been asked—apropos of the honor conferred on Major Grant, of Thobal fame—how many officers are entitled to wear the Victoria cross? I am able to answer the question. The mere statement of number reveals at once the exclusive character of this reward for valor. No less, however, than 39 general officers are entitled to wear it—an indication of the fact that promotion to exalted military rank in England has, in a great many cases, been the reward of heroic merit. Thirty colonels and lieutenant-colonels are entitled to wear the decoration; 22 majors, 11 captains, 8 lieutenants and 5 quartermasters possess the same privilege. Fifty-nine of the medals, however, are held by non-commissioned officers or privates, 34 being in the possession of privates, 5 of lance corporals, 3 of corporals, 7 of sergeants, 6 of color-

DRAWN FROM LIFE FROM INSECTS FOUND IN GROCERY

CHINESE SUGARS---WHAT IT IS WE MAY BE EATING!

In view of the introduction to the Province recently of considerable quantities of Chinese Sugars, it may be as well that the Public should be informed, on the very highest possible authority, of the danger that may be attendant upon their use.

Professor Cameron, Public Analyst, Dublin, a gentleman who has made it his special business to examine all kinds of Foreign Sugars, Refined and other, says that certain kinds of them should never be used. He states that they contain great numbers of DISGUSTING INSECTS, which produce a DISGUSTING DISEASE. Their shape is very accurately shown in the accompanying cut, which is magnified two hundred diameters. Figure 1 is the under side, and Figure 2 the upper. The Professor's description is as follows:—

"This insect ('the Acarus Sacchari') is a formidably organised, exceedingly lively, and decidedly ugly little animal. From its oval-shaped body stretches forth a proboscis, terminating in a kind of scissors, with which it seizes upon its food. Its organs of locomotion consist of eight legs, each jointed and furnished at its extremity with a hook. In the Sugar its movements from one place to another are necessarily very slow, but when placed on a perfectly clean and dry surface, it moves along with great rapidity." He adds that the number of "Acarus" found in Unrefined Sugar is "sometimes exceedingly great, and in no instance is the article quite free from either the insects or their eggs." He further says: "The Acari Sacchari" do not occur in Refined Sugar of any quality, because they cannot pass through the charcoal filters of the Refinery, and because Refined Sugar does not contain any nitrogenous substance upon which they can feed."

COOLIE - MADE - AND - ALL - UNREFINED - SUGARS - SHOULD - NEVER - BE - USED

Besides its being impossible for Canadian Labor to compete with Coolie Labor, rice fed and underpaid, it is well known that Eastern Countries have always been the breeding ground for leprosy and all other loathsome and horrible human diseases, and hand labor there is so cheap that there is no inducement to employ machinery. Home Refined Sugar, on the contrary, is never touched by the human hand from the moment it reaches the refiner until it leaves him a perfectly safe and purified article.

Use, Therefore, Only Home Refined Sugars. They Are Absolutely Unadulterated, Pure and Cheap.

N. B.--Only PURE REFINED SUGARS are imported by VICTORIA MERCHANTS. Raw Sugars, the product of Coolie labor, are imported for refining purposes.

sergeants, 2 of quartermaster-sergeants, and 2 of sergeant-majors. One clergyman possesses the medal, and the act which won the honor for the Rev. J. W. Adams, was walking to and fro in the upper office of the Grand hotel last evening," said the Press-Times, Saturday. "His military bearing and regular twenty-eight inch step, which he acquired years ago at the Annapolis Naval academy, distinguished him from several commercial tourists who were also walking restlessly about, apparently suffering, great mental anguish because unable to invent further plausible additions to their hotel expense bills."

"The gentleman in question was Commander O. W. Farenholt, of the United States navy, who has been in command of the war ship Pinta, which has been cruising the coast of Alaska for the last ten years. To a reporter of the Press-Times he gave the subjoined interview concerning the land of ice, Russians and salmon: "Your readers will doubtless be interested in the following fresh news from the Russell exploring party, of whom, until recently, nothing had been heard for so long that it was feared they had all perished in the snow drifts of Mount St. Elias. Shortly before I came away the Pinta was ordered to take the party to Sitka. Professor Russell gave me an interesting account of his futile attempt to reach the top of the mountain. He said: "We started to ascend the mountain the 1st of last June and got along very nicely until we had reached an elevation of about 9,000 feet. Here we found snow drifts and glaciers, over which it was next to impossible to pass, but we climbed wearily upward. At one point there was a great crevasse in the ice that was about forty feet across. It was impossible to ascertain its depth. Beyond a certain distance downward we could see nothing, as the bright rays of the sun, reflected from the glittering ice, had very nearly blinded us. It took us three days to construct a pontoon bridge across the chasm, and I confess that my heart almost stood still with fear as I crossed, for the fastenings on the other side were anything but secure. We left the bridge standing for our use in returning. Our civil engineer informed us that we would reach the top at 14,500 feet, but when we arrived at that height we found that we were full 5,000 feet below the summit of the mountain, and our further way was obstructed by impassable barriers of ice and snow. It afterwards developed that this engineer, who was not with us, was very inaccurate in all of his estimates and he was relieved from further duty. It is a much greater task to ascend Mount St. Elias than it would be to ascend a mountain located in a milder climate. "We were compelled," said the professor, "to abandon the project of reaching the top. We attained a point higher than any other exploring party has ever reached, and many observations of interest and value were made and recorded."

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Hanlan Defeats McLean with Ease—Matched Against Stephenson.The Championship Lacrosse Match to be Played Next Saturday.

HANLAN V. STEPHENSON.

At last Victorians are to be treated to a genuine exhibition of aquatic sports. It has been definitely arranged, as will be seen by reference to the articles of agreement below, that a race between Hanlan and Stephenson is to take place next Saturday, at Shawnigan Lake. Everybody knows Ned Hanlan. He needs no introduction. He has made rowing what it is to-day, and probably no man will ever do so much for this manly, gentlemanly sport, as he has done. He is not now champion, nor is he among the first men in the rowing world. However, his magnificent style of getting a boat through the water will never leave him, and he is a very fast man still. Stephenson's record was published a few days ago. He is a young man, full of enthusiasm for his profession, and with golden prospects before him. Both men are straight as a die, and both will go into their boats on Saturday with a determination to win. The public can be sure of a close, exciting race and good honest sport. Such an opportunity is rare with Victorians, and they are too well known as a sport-loving people not to welcome such an event with satisfaction. The articles of agreement are substantially as follows:

They provide for a race between the parties, at Shawnigan Lake, on the 24th inst., in best and best boats, for a purse of $600. The race is to be rowed between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and the course will be 1½ miles and return. The governing rules will be those of the Canadian Association of Oarsmen. Mayor Grant, or his nominee, is to referee the race, and W. H. Ellis is named as purse-holder. The latter is to receive the amount of $300 by 2 p.m. on Friday next, and after the race, on the written order of the referee, he will pay $500 to the winner and $100 to the loser. The articles also call for a verbal start and a choice of position by toss immediately before the race is rowed.

The document is signed by Stephenson, and Hanlan per J. C. Drewry. Mr. H. K. Prior is witness to the signatures.

THE OAR.

The Hanlan-McLean race was to have taken place at Vancouver, on Saturday afternoon last, but owing to certain peculiarities resorted to by some of the interested parties, the race did not come off at the appointed time. It was rowed yesterday afternoon, Hanlan easily defeating the Westminster man by about one hundred and fifty yards. Time, twenty minutes, thirty one and half seconds.

The race was one and a half miles and return, in best and best skills, for $400 a side, with an added purse of $300 given by the citizens of Vancouver. The purse was to have been $500, and before Mr. Hanlan consented to row at Vancouver he received a telegram announcing that the money had been raised. A man by the name of Sansom, an architect, had the matter in charge and after a great deal of work announced that he could only secure $300. Ned thought that he was hardly getting fair usage but finally consented to row for the amount on hand. McLean refused to row, alleging that the water was too rough, although the inlet was, in reality, like a mill pond. The referee, Wm. Fullerton, for some unexplained reason, did not put in an appearance until ten minutes before five o'clock, the race being fixed for four. He then had some words with the stakeholder and finally refused to act. After considerable wrangling, during which McLean had the cheek to ask to have Murray, his trainer, appointed as referee, it was agreed that Mr. Russell, barrister, of Vancouver, should be referee. He promptly ordered the men into their boats, McLean protesting all the time that the water was too rough.

The referee found that no buoys had been placed, although Sansom had promised to attend to the matter fully two hours previously, and that darkness would prevent the race, from being rowed that day. The water, too, was getting slightly lumpy. The men were ordered to report at Mr. Watt's boathouse at three o'clock on Monday afternoon. The race took place at half-past four, a big crowd lining the wharves and every point of vantage. Hanlan gave his opponent thirty feet start, but quickly passed him, and from that time it was merely a procession. Ned finished fully one hundred and fifty yards ahead of his opponent and might have easily made it more. McLean labored hard throughout, while Hanlan finished as cool as a cucumber. Hanlan's victory was very popular, and he was cheered to the echo.

PETERSON WINS BY A FLAKE.

The Seattle Telegraph of Monday has the following special from San Francisco:—

Fully 10,000 people witnessed the boat race yesterday afternoon between Henry Peterson, of San Francisco, and Charles Dutch, of Australia. The race took place over the Alameda course, three miles with turn, and was for a stake of a thousand dollars a side. The day was a pleasant one, the morning was warm, and there was scarcely any wind. After one o'clock a slight breeze sprang up, and at the time of the race the oarsmen had to contend against a stiff wind and rough water. At three o'clock the representatives of the rowers tossed for position, when the choice fell to Peterson, and he took the inside course. At 3:19 p.m. the word was given and the race began. Peterson started off a length ahead with a steady stroke about 40. A number of small craft were in Dutch's way, and Peterson gained another length upon him in the Australian's endeavor to gain clear water. Both pulled a quick stroke and soon were rowing side by side. It was even race to the quarter mile stake and then Dutch took the lead. Peterson soon passed him and then they rowed steadily together, making a pretty race. They were each pulling at about 38. The wind told against the oarsmen as they neared the turning point and the pulling became slower. Their respective positions were maintained and it would have been a very difficult matter to have picked the winner at that stage of the race. Nine minutes and half a second after the start Peterson made his turning buoy. Dutch made a miscalculation and started to turn the same buoy, and then observing the separate one for himself, pulled toward it and turned it 14½ seconds after Peterson. This lost him the race. Peterson was now several lengths ahead of him and was fast increasing the distance between them. Soon Peterson was four lengths in advance of Dutch, and making a sport lengthened the gap to six lengths. Dutch saw that it was useless to attempt to regain his lost ground and rowed slowly. Peterson finished in 21 minutes about three lengths ahead. Dutch

AMATEUR AQUATICS.

A rumor was current a few days ago that the James Bay Athletic Association was refused admission—had been black-balled—at Portland at the Northwestern Amateur Rowing Association. The statement was yesterday investigated by a Colonist reporter, and found to be groundless. Some time ago, Sullivan, captain of the James Bay club, received a communication from Callendar, of the Vancouver club, asking if the Capital City Club and the James Bay Athletic Association were one and the same. Mr. Callendar must have known that they are, the property of the Capital City Club having long since passed over to the James Bay people. But the James Bay club never applied for admission to the Portland organization. They applied to the Canadian Amateur Association for admission, but the point was raised, through the application of oarsman Richardson to be readmitted as an amateur, that the club had admitted to membership a man who was a professional, he having rowed for money. This must be how the rumor gained currency. But, as will be understood from the foregoing facts, there is no truth whatever in it.

LACROSSE.

The championship lacrosse match has been ordered to be played on Saturday next, the 24th inst., and it is all but certain that the game will take place in this city. The executive of the Lacrosse association resident in Victoria, held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and decided to notify the two two mainland clubs of the above arrangement. The match will probably be played on the Driving Park, the receipts, after paying expenses, to be devoted to the purchase of a lacrosse trophy to be held by the winning team of the series each year. It is more than probable that a large crowd will accompany the mainland clubs over to witness the deciding game of 1891.

The executive of the Victoria lacrosse club met, last evening, for the last time before the semi-annual meeting, next month. The treasurer's report was read and pronounced most satisfactory, showing a reasonable balance in hand. The committee resolved to make elaborate preparations to ensure the financial success of the great match between Vancouver and New Westminster for the Provincial championship.

CRICKET.

The Junior Cricket Club, of Westminster, have wound up business for the season. During the summer they played several matches, and suffered but one defeat. The president, Mr. Guy W. Walker, was instructed to communicate with parties in Nanaimo, Victoria, Seattle and Vancouver, in the early spring, and arrange a series of matches, to be played during the summer of 1892. The juniors, it will be admitted, lack neither pluck nor enterprise, and it is satisfactory to note that they are determined to maintain their organization. After concluding all the business on hand, the juniors adjourned to meet again on the first Monday in April next.

WRESTLING.

Dan McLeod has been "chaffed" unmercifully about the challenge to wrestle the Tacoma man on horseback. He has been offered the loan of horses, all the way from an Indian "cayuse" to a Clydesdale draught horse. Dan says he is nothing on horseback, and refuses the "mat" to a "bareback horse." He says he is not in it, so Dunnet may as well save his powder. Wrestling on horseback is quite a science in the Eastern States, where a number of men have become quite expert. The match is conducted on horse-back, and pulling or getting the man off the horse and on the ground constitutes a "fall." It is more a matter of horsemanship than wrestling, so Dan says he must respectfully decline.—Free Press.

POLO.

There will be a match at Beacon Hill this afternoon, commencing at 3:30 o'clock, between the Navy and Victoria. Dr. Pearson and Lieuts. Ethelstone, G. Couper and F. Marks are playing for the Navy, while Messrs. N. E. Snowden, H. A. Barton, B. Rossell and H. E. Newton represent Victoria. As the games now stand, Victoria is one behind, but they hope to equalize matters this afternoon, so the match is expected to be the best of the season.

HERE AND THERE.

The Union Gun Club will meet, this evening, to wind up the affairs of the season.

THE KISPYOX INDIANS.

The Return of the Louise with Important News and Significant Forbodings.

Hon. P. O'Reilly, Indian Reserves Commissioner, returned, yesterday morning, by the Louise from the north. He reports having encountered some trouble in making out Indian reserves in the country held by the Kispiox tribe. These people protested against any dictation as to the allotment of their lands, and resented the intrusion of the pale faces. Mr. Poudriere's exploration party had also been obstructed by this tribe, whose chief appears to be more reasonable than are his followers. An Indian council was held by Mr. O'Reilly, and a fairly satisfactory arrangement arrived at. So far the difficulty has been tided over, but whether the arrangement is a lasting one or not, remains to be seen. In the other districts peace and quietness prevail, and the Indians appear to be happy and contented.

The Louise left the Skeena the same time as the Boscowitz, which latter vessel is daily expected. Indian Agent Todd, with a party of armed men, had also left from Hazelton, for the scene of the Indian troubles, expecting that their services may possibly be required there to preserve order and sustain the action of the Government in their allotments. However, Hon. Mr. O'Reilly does not anticipate trouble. The Louise had on board twenty-two passengers, including, besides the Indian Reserves Commissioner, Mr. J. O'Reilly, Mr. Ashdown Greene and Mr. S. A. Spencer and wife. While the former party were coming down the Skeena, the monotony of the trip was broken by a little sporting incident. A monster Cariboo was sighted, and a shot was fired from the canoe, wounding the animal. The Cariboo, however, made for the mountains, and for a couple of days evaded even the vigilance of a few Indians sent on his trail. He was brought down as a souvenir of the trip. The Louise brought down 10,000 gallons of skid oil, from the Skidgate Oil Works, and some 1,000 cases of salmon. She reports that there are still some 18,000 cases yet to come down. The weather on the homeward voyage was rough and unpleasant.

Confirmation Service.
There was Confirmation service held in St. Saviour's, on Sunday evening, when seven candidates were duly admitted to this ordinance. The Lord Bishop preached a very appropriate sermon, which was listened to with marked attention by a large congregation. The church was beautifully decorated, the flowers and sheaves which served to illustrate the bounties of harvest being still in place.

Secular Thought.
Mrs. Kregel addressed a large audience in the Victoria Theatre, on Sunday evening last, on the subject, "Natural Morality Superior to Theological Restraint." She held that the salient points of ecclesiastical law were but the result of the high standard of morality practiced and taught ages before. Judaism was a recognized religion. Science, she held, had done more to religion to elevate the race, by removing superstition and teaching men to look to themselves rather than for any supernatural power.

Train-car Tickets.
A warrant was, yesterday, issued for the arrest of Walter King, late conductor on the Esquimalt route of the street tramway line. The case has been worked up by Officer Campbell, of Esquimalt, who claims to have brought home guilt to the conductor in question, and a strong suspicion against others in the service. The modus operandi was as follows: Tickets issued by the company are always punched, and instead of cancelling the pasteboard the conductor is charged with having reserved them for future use, and to have resold them at greatly reduced prices. This system of checking was altered, and then came the discovery, when cancelled tickets were reproduced. How many hundred dollars the company have been thus cheated out of it is difficult to estimate.

Ordinary or Extraordinary Insanity.
A Nova Scotian registered at the Occidental Hotel as "T. Murphy," and who is known about town as Capt. Murphy, was yesterday arrested on board the steamer Islander, as a person showing symptoms of insanity. The "Captain" has been this season one of the crew of the sealer "Teresa," and since the arrival of that craft in port has been drinking rather freely. He yesterday put in an appearance at the Occidental and asked why his luggage had not been given over to the expressman, averring that he had sent for it, while no call had been made for the trunks at the hotel. He explained that he was going East at once, but added that he would wait for the "swell dinner," which was to be served up on the occasion of an imaginary wedding, which, he persisted, was to have taken place in the house yesterday at 1 p.m. He then went down to the Islander, and entering the purser's room, proceeded to make himself quite at home. An explanation was demanded, as a result of which the police were communicated with. Two constables came down to the wharf and made Murphy a prisoner, taking him through the city minus his coat and hat. He is lodged in the lock-up, pending medical examination.

L.O.G.T. Concert.
A grand concert, under the auspices of the L.O.G.T. city lodges, will be held this evening, in the Temperance hall, Pandora avenue, when a splendid programme will be presented, consisting of vocal and instrumental music by well known talent. Those who are fortunate enough to secure seats may rely upon a rare treat.

Lecture.
Rev. James Ross, B.D., of Perth, Ont., at present supplying the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church, has kindly consented to give his popular lecture, "Rambles in Scotland," in the lecture room of the above church, on Wednesday evening next, 21st inst. Mr. J. G. Brown and the members of his choir will assist in Scottish songs and solos. The admission to the lecture will be free, but a collection will be taken up at the close in aid of the funds of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Victoria West.

America's Favorite Musical Artist.
Charles E. Schilling, manager Goodyear, Elitch & Schilling's Minstrel, has been connected with the minstrel and pantomime companies for years. He is considered the greatest producer of original ideas in minstrelsy in this country. He is the originator of instrumental comedy, and has honestly earned the title of premier musical artist of the world. He will appear here at The Victoria, on the 21st and 22nd instants, with Goodyear, Elitch & Schilling's Minstrels.

Speedy Trials.
Prisoners Cleary, charged with larceny; Robinson, charged with stealing a heifer, and Burke, on a charge of highway robbery, were, yesterday, brought before Sir Matthew B. Begbie, C.J., and asked to elect whether they would be tried before his lordship or by a jury. Cleary and Robinson chose the jury trial, and in the case of Burke there was no information forthcoming. His lordship asked how this was, and rather censured the sheriff, who in turn shouldered the blame upon the city clerk, who does duty in the police court. The trio were, in the meantime, escorted back to the provincial jail. Burke will be brought up again as soon as the official information turns up.

How! Wow! Wow!
From a recent number of the Canadian Kennel Gazette, the official organ of the Canadian Kennel Club, we should say that, "our friend the dog" is making great headway in Canada. The Gazette contains practical and instructive articles on dogs by the best known writers and veterinarians in Canada; the canine news of the day; critical reports and full lists of awards of all dog shows held in Canada; a question and medical advice department, and a register of whelps, sales, etc. It is indeed a valuable periodical, and is published at the popular price of $1 per year. Mr. H. B. Donovan, the Editor, Toronto, was elected Secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, at the annual meeting held last month, and will be pleased to answer any questions regarding the national canine organization of the Dominion.

The Rothesay Bay.
The bark Rothesay Bay, from Glasgow, Scotland, has been in port for some time past, and in difficulties also. The charterers, in the Old Country, appear to be in some trouble. They had paid nearly the whole of the freight, but scarcely had the bark arrived here than her owners telegraphed instructions to the captain to hold the cargo as a lien on freight. The consignees are in this position, therefore, that they cannot get their goods until the owners are satisfied. The consignees hold that this is an illegal proceeding, and in this they are sustained by Collector of Customs Milne. Goods cannot be held in this port because of any delinquency on the part of the consignors, or difficulty on the part of the shipowners. At the most, there could only be retained a sufficient portion of the cargo to cover freight. It would be unjust to call upon merchants here to pay twice or three times over for their goods. This point having been demonstrated to Captain Partridge, he is likely, on legal advice, to remove the barrier and let the cargo go.

THE SEIZED SEALERS

Have Been Released Unconditionally to the Satisfaction of all Concerned.

The sealing schooners Otto and E. B. Marvin, seized for alleged infractions of the Behring Sea Fishery Act, 1891, have been unconditionally released. H. M. Collector of Customs, Mr. A. R. Milne, yesterday, received the following communication:

WARSITE, AT ESQUIMALT, 17th Oct. 1891.
SIR—I have the honor to inform you that I have received telegraphic instructions, dated 17th Oct., from the Commissioners of the Admiralty, to release the sealing schooners "E. B. Marvin" and "Otto," under seizure for contravention of the Seal Fishery Act, 1891, without further proceedings, other than informing the owners and masters of the penalty they have incurred in contravening the above-named act, under sections 103 and 104, and part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and therefore, in accordance with the instructions, I have the honor to request you will cause the release of the vessels named, and would also be obliged if, at the same time, you would deliver to the owners and masters of the respective vessels the accompanying letters.
I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
CHAS. F. HOTHAM,
Rear-Admiral,
Commander-in-Chief.

The letters alluded to were in the following terms:

WARSITE AT ESQUIMALT, 17th October, 1891.
SIR—In accordance with instructions from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated 17th October, 1891, I am directed to release the schooner E. B. Marvin without further proceedings, and to inform you at the same time that in contravention of the Seal Fishery Act, 1891, you have incurred the penalty laid down in sections 103 and 104, and part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, i.e. seizure and forfeiture of ship and equipment and imprisonment not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding £100.
H. M. Collector of Customs at Victoria has therefore, in compliance with the above mentioned instructions, been requested to release your vessel forthwith.
I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
CHAS. F. HOTHAM,
Rear-Admiral, Commander-in-Chief.

The owners of the vessel were most satisfied with the result, and feel thankful to Mr. Milne and the Admiral for having brought a troubled question to so speedy a termination.

BRITISH COLUMBIA SALMON.

Robt. Ward & Co. Send a Train Load to Eastern Canada.

A train load of British Columbia salmon will go over the Northern Pacific railroad to Eastern Canadian points. This is consigned by Robt. Ward & Co. to Canadian buyers, for the following canneries:—
Even & Co. 1,077 cases
"Hon Accord" 250 "
"Express" A. J. McLehane 250 "
The lot will be taken through to the East in a special train, and it is expected that excellent time will be made.

A Correction.
In the preliminary examinations for Provincial Land Surveyors, the name of the successful candidate, instead of being "James McMaster," should have read Fred Wollaston.

The Boat Capsized.
On Sunday night last, a particularly sad drowning accident occurred at Plummer's Pass. Three young men—namely, Fred Jack, Wm. Smith and Melvin Collison—went for a sail in a small boat. They did not get very far from land, however, when the boat capsized, throwing all into the water, the two former being drowned and the latter being rescued just in time by some friends on the shore. The young men were all residents of the Island, and Fred Jack, one of the three, lay in Victoria a short time ago.

Traffic in Chinese Women.
In response to an appeal made from the various pulpits in the city, on Sunday last, asking the ladies of the various churches to meet in order to consider some matters of vital importance, nearly one hundred ladies of all denominations assembled yesterday afternoon in the Methodist church at the hour appointed. In a few well chosen words it was explained that the business of importing Chinese women for immoral purposes was again resumed, and a lot of girls of tender age were being decoyed here, through false promises made by designing men and women. An appeal was made to the Christian women of the city to do all in their power to protect their Chinese sisters from this terrible slavery. After some discussion it was moved, seconded and carried that two delegates should be selected from each of the denominations to wait upon Mr. A. R. Milne, collector of customs, and confer with him regarding the matter. After the deputation were selected, they proceeded at once to the office of the collector of customs, and were received with the greatest courtesy by Mr. Milne, who, with his usual kindness, soon made the committee feel at ease. He assured the ladies that while there were many difficulties to contend with, his full sympathy was with them in their desire to protect the Chinese women, and that he would do all in his power to assist in preventing the continuance of this infamous practice. After some wise suggestions from Mr. Milne and associates, the deputation withdrew, satisfied that in Mr. Milne they had a friend in need, and a friend indeed.

Open For Business.
The B. C. District Telegraph and Delivery Co. open up this morning, for business, having two circuits complete. The others will be completed as soon as possible.

Regimental Orders.
By order of Lieut.-Col. E. G. Prior, the batteries at headquarters will parade at 8 o'clock, on Friday evening next, for battalion drill, at the drill shed. A large attendance is expected.

The New Time Table.
Attention is called to a change in the time table of the E. & N. Railway which comes into operation, to-day. It will be noticed that the alteration consists in the departure and arrival of the afternoon trains on Saturdays and Sundays, an hour earlier than before.

Sealers' Association.
A full meeting of the Sealers' Association was held, last night, at the office of Messrs. Hall & Goepel. The principal question discussed was the manner in which the members should proceed in their petition to the Government for indemnity, for the seizure of schooners and loss in other ways, and, eventually, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Morris Moss, Penney, Music, and Captains Warren and J. G. Cox was formed, which was instructed to report on the matter, and call another general meeting as soon as possible.

Delighted with Victoria.
A COLONIST representative visited Mr. Ramsay, manager of the Standard Life Assurance Co., and Mr. Gillespie, a well-known Montreal merchant, a director of the company, yesterday. Both gentlemen, neither of whom has ever before been far west than Winnipeg, expressed themselves delighted with Victoria, which they describe as one of the most charming little cities they have ever seen. Since leaving Montreal they have not only called at the various towns on the route, but, since they reached the west, have stayed off at several ranches and farms, enquiring into the prospects of the interior stations and making themselves thoroughly acquainted with the resources of the country. Both deprecate the scattered appearance of the new towns, but express their astonishment at seeing electric tram cars, electric light, perfect water service, and every adjunct of modern civilization in this part of the continent.

A Runaway Team.
While one of the Wellington Coal Co.'s wagons was discharging coal at 74 Yates street, yesterday afternoon, the horses took fright at the tramcar, and darting off, turned the corner at the Pritchard House and dashed up Government street, clearing everything before them. The man supposed to be in charge of the horses, the time of the runaway, was in the store collecting an account. George Vienna's delivery wagon was the first collided with, and it went smash, as did also a couple of hacks. Joe Tway's car was struck opposite Brackman & Ker's store, and knocked clean over, the car being smashed to pieces and the horse badly injured. The animals under the coal wagon also came to grief at this point, and their further progress put a stop to it. That no human life was lost appears miraculous, as the streets were crowded and every car collided with was occupied. It is said that the amount of damage done by the runaways will not be covered by $200.

The Cedar Hill Concert.
This evening is the occasion of the grand concert in the Philharmonic Hall, for which arrangements are now complete. Any person in doubt as to whether they ought to patronize the concert or stay away, had best consult the programme or consider the object in view, and the decision is bound to be, "go." Among the many attractions is the music of the Warspite band. The programme is appended:
Toy Symphony, Von Holten, First violins, Messrs. Laffey, Higgins and Powell; second violins, Miss Jones and Mr. A. Rhodes; cellists, Messrs. Haylis and Galpin; trumpets, Messrs. Turner and Bridgman; drums, Messrs. Fowkes and Loewen; triangle, Miss Higgins; quills, Miss Powell and Mr. A. L. vander; cuckoos, Miss Bunting and Mr. Haines; nightingales, Miss D. A large scow load of lumber came over from the mainland yesterday afternoon in tow of a tug.

Str. Rainbow arrived last evening from the mainland with a heavy load of freight. This is the last trip for the Rainbow this season, she will now tie up for the winter months.

Over 1,000 sheep came over from the Sound yesterday morning. They were consigned to John Parker.

WOMAN WEAK AND FRAIL!

A MISERABLE EXISTENCE!

GIVE HEED TO THE WARNING!

LIFE CAN BE MADE JOYOUS!

Fainting, or syncope, as it is professionally called, very often attacks the individual without warning, though at other times, and in those subject to these distressing symptoms, fainting is preceded by well-defined sensations, such as a feeling of dizziness, languor and sickness; the sight becomes dim, and the eyes appear covered by a film; a dark circle appears round the orbits; a buzzing or low singing noise is heard in the ears; the face and lips are pale; a cold perspiration breaks out over the skin; the pulse sinks to a mere flutter, and finally ceases; the body totters and, unless upheld, falls to the ground. This state lasts from five minutes to half an hour, and, when prolonged, it may terminate in epilepsy or convulsions.

The causes that predispose to faintings are: an intensely nervous state of the system, a delicate constitution, and extreme debility from whatever cause produced. Females are more subject to fainting than males, hence amongst young girls and women we find the weak, the sleepless, the excited, the irritable and morbidly inclined.

The nervous, debilitated, sleepless and irritable woman leads a terribly miserable life. She is a burden to herself and a great care to her friends; with her, life is uncertain, and the light of the lamp may go out at any time. She is aware of this and her friends know it, yet in many cases there is no sure and sensible effort put forth to change existing circumstances.

The family physician is consulted, and views with apparent gravity the situation, and a small measure of assistance is temporarily given, but no permanent cure is effected.

The foundation for a perfect cure must be commenced by strengthening the body. Every nerve and muscle must be strengthened, the blood increased, circulation properly regulated, and a healthy appetite and good digestion produced. Then, and only then, will sleeplessness, excitement, irritability and morbidness be banished.

Experience for some years past has clearly demonstrated the fact, that there exists but one true and reliable remedy for this class of sufferers. It is admitted by those that know best that Pain's Celery Compound is the great agent for all who are subject to weakness and fainting spells. It quickly builds up the whole body, restores the whole motive power that the healthy body should possess; it stimulates every organ of nutrition, invigorates the nervous system, and gives strength to the exhausted and waning powers of life.

No system of medical treatment can equal the effects produced by Pain's Celery Compound. This fact is well known to physicians, who are now successfully prescribing it. No other medicine in existence is now so popular with the women of Canada, and a trial is urged in every case of bodily weakness, nervousness and sleeplessness.

PORT SIMPSON

All indications point to the fact that PORT SIMPSON will shortly be the terminus of a northern transcontinental railway. In the next five years it may be a second Vancouver. It offers the greatest inducement for speculation at the present time of any point on the coast. Now is the time to get in when you can purchase a lot for a small consideration.

The undersigned has visited Port Simpson, and is acquainted with the character of the land there. He has had placed in his hands for sale a most desirable subdivision of lots at prices averaging about $100 each. Terms easy. He can guarantee that the land is level, and well and centrally situated—not perched on a bluff five miles from where the centre of Port Simpson will of necessity be located.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE GRAND OLD MAN.

RT. HON. W. E. GLADSTONE, one of the greatest of living statesmen, speaking of the Encyclopædia Britannica, said: "For scientific research and as an educational factor this great work has no equal." Thousands of the leading men of the world think the same thing. But few comparatively could afford to pay from $150 to $200 for the old original ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA. The ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA REVISED AND AMENDED contains every article that the old work does, but some of the lengthy articles have been cut down, and many articles written up to 1891, giving an Encyclopædia up to date. Besides, the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA REVISED AND AMENDED contains over 4,000 biographies of living and dead statesmen not contained in the old work; even such men as the great Gladstone, Bismarck, Sir John Macdonald, Hon. John Bright, Hon. George Brown, and hundreds of other great men are not mentioned at all in the old ninth edition.

ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA,

REVISED AND AMENDED,

is the most complete and diversified library of entertainment and interesting literature ever issued from the press. You will find something to attract and interest you on every page. If you are fond of history, it contains the finest collection of histories in the world, embracing every nation of ancient and modern times. Are you interested in science? The Encyclopædia Britannica, Revised and Amended, will tell you in clear, understandable English, all about any science you may wish to study. Are you curious about mechanical inventions? The Encyclopædia describes them all. Or perhaps you want information about some industry or mode of manufacturing? Again the Encyclopædia is ready to your hand; a moment's turning of its pages brings the proper heading to your eyes, and there before you lies a complete and exhaustive account of the entire subject. In short, whether you want amusement for an idle hour, solid instruction for more serious moments, or quick information about any matter as to which you are in doubt, you have the means in these books of gratifying your desire.

The Work is Illustrated.

Its seven thousand pages are filled with fine pictures, and it contains over 8,500,000 words. The information compiled in this "Cyclopædia" represents the careful work of over 1000 of the ablest writers of the nineteenth century. All other "Cyclopædias" are from five to twenty years behind the date of the issue of this grand work, which was completed in 1890.

CLOTH BINDING, $30. SHEEP, $38. MOROCCO, $42.

HOW TO GET IT.

This work is only sold with a year's subscription to THE DAILY COLONIST, which may be paid at the rate of $2.50 cash and $2.50 per month for the cloth; $3.20 cash and $3.20 per month for the sheep; and $3.50 cash and $3.50 per month for the morocco. Where full cash is paid the price will be $28.50 for cloth, $36.50 for sheep, and $40 for morocco.

The above prices do not include the delivery by carrier. Where paper is delivered by carrier, $10 will be deducted from each price, and the usual charge for the paper made by the carrier in the usual way. The Encyclopædia, however, will only be sold to new subscribers where a year's subscription to the paper is guaranteed with the order.

Five volumes will be delivered on the signing of the contract, the remaining five when full of total price has been paid.

Sample copies of the various bindings may be seen on application at this office. The city carriers, accredited agents of THE COLONIST, and postmasters in interior towns, only are authorized to make contracts for the paper and the Encyclopædia.

For $2.50 cash and $2.50 per month for one year you will receive the very best encyclopædia published, and the leading newspaper published in British Columbia for one year, in the bargain.

For further particulars apply at the office.

South American Hotels.

The visitor's first experience of the hotels in Buenos Ayres is his first disappointment. With the exception of the Grand hotel, which would rank with third and even fourth class houses in Europe, all the thirty or forty hotels of Buenos Ayres occupy inadequate buildings and they are badly furnished, badly managed and altogether wretched, dirty and uncomfortable. Nevertheless, the proprietors make good profits. They charge from $2.50 to $12 gold a day for each person and their houses are always full.

He Got the Worst of It.

He was a Bath (Me.) hackman, so the Enterprise says, and he had a Canadian quarrel, worth only twenty cents in Bath, that he wanted to dispose of. So one dark night when an innocent old lady handed him half a dollar he gave her the Canadian quarter in change, and instead of feeling ashamed of himself he chuckled over the transaction—that is, he chuckled until he pulled out the coin the lady had given him, and by the light of a lamp discovered that it was a Canadian half-dollar.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

PRETTY AND COMMODIOUS.

Dedication of the School Church of St. Alban, the Martyr, Nanaimo.

Less than six months ago the Ecclesiastical parish of Nanaimo was divided, and the whole south half of the town was assigned to the new parish of St. Alban, the Martyr, and the Rev. G. H. Tovey, then curate of Holy Trinity, New Westminster, was appointed rector. Since that time sites have been acquired on liberal terms from the New Vancouver Coal Co. for a church, rectory and mission. That for the church is situated in a commanding position at the apex of the parish, and where the principal roads come to a point. Sufficient of this ground has been reserved for a future stone church of large dimensions, the congregation in the meanwhile contenting themselves with the building which was dedicated on Wednesday last. This building is properly called a school-church, and when no longer needed for Divine worship will be used as a school and parish room. The school-church is of handsome exterior, although somewhat squat in appearance. The roof is colored red, the walls dark olive green with red trimmings standing upon a stone basement. There are five gables filled with shingles, their natural color, and half timber and plaster respectively. The bell turret is surmounted by a handsome gold cross, and contains a bell of five hundred weight. At the opposite end of the building a flagstaff has been erected nearly 100 feet high.

The plan of the building shows its double purpose, and is novel in this country; it was the design of the Rector and carried out most successfully by the architects, Messrs. Sharp & MacLure, of New Westminster. The main feature of the building is a large hall with an open roof, and at one end showing a platform and large sliding doors. This hall is unconsecrated and may be used for secular purposes, as well as for a nave for the Sunday services. The sliding doors being open show the "Chapel," which serves then as a chancel, but is large enough for the daily services and celebration of the Eucharist when cut off from the large hall.

This chapel has a separate entrance and priests' vestry, and is the gem of the whole building. It is lined with native woods and oil finished; the sanctuary is cedar paneled, and a heavy cornice with dental ornamentation runs around the top. On this cornice appear the words "Quicunque vult salvus esse ante omnia opus est ut teneat, Catholicum fidem." The altar is of similar classical design supported by six fluted columns with carved Corinthian capitals. It is made of cedar, but unpainted. The front shows between the pillars, three beautifully painted panels; the centre one representing the Crucifixion, with the figures of two English saints—St. Alban and St. Chad. On the retable above the altar are the legal ornaments, a brass cross and candlesticks, the latter being temporary, as very handsome candlesticks are being specially manufactured in England, to match the design of the altar. The altar and its ornaments are set off to great advantage by side hangings of rich blue and gold tapestry; and as the light enters through subdued colored cathedral glass, at the sides and not behind the altar, it is thrown into a prominence that attracts the eye of the visitor immediately on his entrance into the building. Opposite the chapel door is a fresco of the Martyrdom of St. Alban, and on the other wall a picture of the Last Supper. Adjoining the main hall are a series of class rooms, suited for vestry, school and general purposes, and at the end a small kitchen. The electric light is used throughout and the hot-air heating system is connected with every part. Mr. Olmstead, the contractor, has carried out his work in a satisfactory manner, and we hope it will be an augury of a prosperous career in Nanaimo. The whole of the interior wood work is oil finished; this and the painting of the exterior was done by Messrs. Nash and Crowther. The ironwork, heating apparatus and bell were supplied by Mr. Fiecke. The altar was made by Messrs. Wintermute Bros. of New Westminster, and the carving is from the studio of Miss Edle, who teaches that art in Vancouver.

Literary Note.

How many Canadians are acquainted with the names of the men who make their newspapers? And yet there is no more important and no more earnest and influential body of men in the Dominion. Walter Blackburn Hart, who served a long apprenticeship on the press of this country, will contribute an article, "The Journals and Journalists of Canada," to the New England Magazine for December, which will contain portraits of all the men who have made, and are making, their mark in Canadian journalism. There will be no politics in the article, and Conservatives, Liberals and Independents alike should read it. It is the first time in the history of American periodical literature that an attempt has been made to give an adequate account of Canadian journalism. Mr. Hart is admitted, even by those who disapprove of his attitude in politics, to be, at least, a perfectly candid writer, and in this article, merely the abilities of the journalists treated of have been considered friends and opponents have been judged as men, and from a literary standpoint only, without the least reference to their political affiliations. The leading French-Canadian journalists are included with their English confederates, and the article is prefaced with an interesting review of the methods of Canadian journalism. It is an article which should interest a very wide circle outside of journalism, for all the world is curious about the mysterious "we," who discuss the affairs of the nation and the world in every morning's newspaper.
